DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 31-42 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

With respect to claim 31, the prior art in an obvious combination teaches:

A liquid crystal display device, comprising:

a liquid crystal panel having a plurality of gate lines and data lines crossing each other, and having red (R), green (G) and blue (B) pixels arranged in a matrix pattern;

a light source transmitting light through the R, G, and B pixels creating red, green, and blue colors respectively;

a gate driving unit for applying scan signals to the gate lines;

a lookup table for storing gray scale values of image information including R, G and B data, where a gray scale value of a gray level of the B data that is lower than a gray level at which a color saturation is reduced, is stored as a gray scale value of gray levels that are higher than the gray level at which the color saturation is reduced, a data processing unit for compensating image information according to the gray scale values in the lookup table; and a data driving unit for receiving the compensated image information and applying the compensated image information to the data lines.

The cited prior art does not teach or disclose either alone or in an obvious combination:

wherein, in addition to the above limitations, the lookup table includes a same initial gray scale value of at least one of the R and G data for all gray levels prior to a gray level at which the color saturation is reduced and the lookup table includes different gray scale values of the R and G data to mix with the B gray scale values from a gray level at which the color saturation is reduced to an uppermost gray level.

Claim 36 is merely a method version of claim 31 and is allowable for similar reasons to those detailed above in claim 31.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
